Exemptions From Attendance

Requests for exemption from compulsory full-time attendance shall include satisfactory evidence of conditions upon which an exemption can be legally justified.

Students may be exempted from full-time attendance in the district's regular education program if they:

1. Are being instructed in a private full-time school and the attendance supervisor or designee verifies that the private school has filed an affidavit pursuant to Education Code 33190 (Education Code 48222, 48223)
2. Are being home taught and are being supervised by a district employee or instructed by a private tutor who holds a valid state credential for the grade taught, provided that the instruction consists of study and recitation for at least three hours a day for 175 days of each calendar year (Education Code 48224)
3. Hold work permits to work temporarily in the entertainment or allied industry (Education Code 48225)

(cf. 5113.2 - Work Permits)

4. Hold work permits and attend part-time classes (Education Code 48230)
5. Are between the ages of 12 and 18 and enter a school attendance area from another state within 10 days of the end of the school term, with the exemption applicable for the remainder of the term (Education Code 48231)

(cf. 5112.3 - Student Leave of Absence)

(cf. 5141.22 - Infectious Diseases)

(cf. 6158 - Independent Study)

(cf. 6183 - Home and Hospital Instruction)
