Interdistrict Attendance

The District reserves the right to revoke an interdistrict attendance permit for any of the following reasons:

11. Enrollment in the grade exceeds space available during the year.
12. Unsatisfactory attendance of the student, which includes punctuality relative to school starting and ending times, as well as excessive absenteeism. Unsatisfactory attendance is further defined as being classified as truant.
13. Unsatisfactory citizenship by the student, defined as continual breaking of school rules or upon the commitment of an act warranting two or more days of suspension in any one school year or more than one unsatisfactory rating on the effort section of any report card.
14. Unsatisfactory scholarship from the student, clarified to be achievement below a “C” average on any report card.
15. Determination that the conditions under which the original transfer request was granted no longer apply.
16. A finding that false, misleading or the deliberate omission of information was provided by the parents and used as a basis for the securing or renewing of a permit.
17. A determination that space, facilities, services, or supplies are or will be insufficient at a given site to accommodate resident students or anticipated new resident students within the attendance area.
18. Unwillingness to cooperate with school officials by the student or parent.
19. Any other reasons exist as determined by Education Code or district policy.

Appeal Procedures

If the request is denied by the Superintendent, a parent may appeal in writing to the Lowell Joint School District within 30 calendar days of the date of notification. If the request is appealed, it will be reviewed by the Board of Trustees and the decision of the Board of Trustees will be the final action of the Lowell Joint School District. If the request is denied by the Board of Trustees, a parent may appeal, within 30 calendar days of the date of notification, to the Los Angeles County Board of Education, where the decision will be final.
